

Tesla Science Center at Wardenclyffe announces

TESLA CONFERENCE 2011

Exploring Tesla's Technologies

Saturday, November 5, 2011 Hilton Garden Inn 2038 Old Country Rd Riverhead, NY

Among the Participating Speakers and Presenters for the Conference:

Dr. James Corum

Chief Technical Officer for CPG Technologies

Kenneth Corum

Staff Consultant, Sun Microsystems

Constance Gibson Currie

President, Long Island Radio & TV Historical Society

James Hardesty

Arcs and Sparks

Dr. Erik Johnson

Associate Director, Photon Sciences Directorate, BNL

Robert Lundquist

Former Chief Engineer in Charge,
RCA Central Transmitting Station, Rocky Point

Gary Peterson

COO, Tesla Wardenclyffe Project

Dr. Marc Seifer

Nikola Tesla biographer

Dr. Nikolaos Simos

Nuclear Science and Technology, BNL

William H. Terbo

Engineer and Great-nephew of Nikola Tesla

Dr. Sebastian White

Physicist, CERN, and Great-grandson of Stanford White

Walter Zaczek

NY State Parks and Recreation & Historical Preservation

Evening Reception:

Kip Rosser

Theremin performer

Joseph Sikorski & Victor Elefante

Filmmakers, Fragments From Olympus

Concurrent Events:

Teslamania!

A program by and for teachers of physics.

Tesla Global Radio Meet-up –"TeslaGRAM"

A ham fest, from many of Tesla's residence and laboratory locations throughout the world.

To register:

Visit our website: www.TeslaScienceCenter.org
for the link to the registration page.

Payment is via PayPal.

A PayPal account is not required.

Conference

Adults: $40 until October 31; $50 November 1–5

High School and College Students with ID: $30

Children 3-14: $15; under 3 free.

Includes lunch and refreshment breaks.

Evening Reception ($5)

Entertainment and refreshments.

For additional information, please visit www.TeslaScienceCenter.org

